

Understated Elegance

Designing for Modern Glamour: Lynne Scalo Design

"Simplicity is the keynote of all true elegance."
—Coco Chanel (1923)

"My design aesthetic is seamlessly blending modern glamour with classic elegance. My priority is always maintaining my client's personal style and lifestyle demands be it children, pets, entertaining, serenity (usually all of the above!). I am creating a backdrop for their multifaceted lives and I love that challenge.

I have an extensive background in fine arts and I bring a global perspective to all of my projects. I love to infuse various periods and styles to create a cohesive story that is relevant to a particular family," Lynne explains.

"I love what I do, making the world a better place, one room at a time!"

"Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication."
—Leonardo da Vinci
